

Hand-in – free groups

Please note – you will have to create your group before you can submit your hand-in. All group members need to log-in to Digital Exam and accept the group invitation to become part of the group. Only one member of a group should submit the hand-in, but all group members will have access to it.

You can see the submission conditions in “Exam information”, under “Exam submission”. This can either be individual or free group.

To create your group and submit your hand-in, please click “Next”.

The invited group members will receive an e-mail notification and they will see a group invitation when they log in to Digital Exam. To join the group, they need to accept the invitation. The invited fellow students can't see the group hand-in and will not be stated as part of the group until they have accepted the invitation. This is done by logging into Digital Exam with their own username and password and then access the relevant exam, where a group invitation is awaiting.

If they deny the invitation, they will disappear from the group.

When you have added group members, please click “Next”, to upload and submit your group hand-in.
